IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

COCP No.290 of 2006
Date of decision: September 7, 2006.

Court on its own motion

...Petitioner(s)

v.

Raghbir Singh, DSP

...Respondent(s)

Present: Shri A.S. Jatana, Advocate for the respondent-contemnor.

Surya Kant, J. (Oral)

Pursuant to the suo-motu notice issued to DSP Raghbir Singh vide order dated 28.2.2006, he is present in court along with his learned counsel.

DSP Raghbir Singh has also filed his affidavit, which is taken on record. In the said affidavit, his non-appearance as a witness before the learned trial court is sought to be explained on the ground that he was suffering with some bodily ailment and was under treatment at Civil Hospital, Baghapurana, the record of which has been appended with the affidavit. He also tenders unconditional apology and undertakes that no such remiss shall occur in future.

Learned counsel for DSP Raghbir Singh further states that the entire prosecution evidence was concluded on 31.3.2006 and the petitioner has since been convicted by the learned Special Judge on 2.9.2006.

In view of the unconditional apology tendered by DSP Raghbir

Singh and the undertaking given by him for his future behaviour and taking notice of the subsequent events, referred to above, this petition is disposed of with an unrecorded warning to DSP Raghbir Singh to be careful in future.

Rule discharged.
